DESCRIPTION

This remarkable Grade II Listed four-bedroom home is rich in character and charm, set within stunning gardens near the historic market town of Hailsham. Beautifully updated by the current owners, it seamlessly blends period features with modern comfort.

The entrance hall accessed via a period stable door leads to a magnificent 25' sitting room with a grand inglenook fireplace and wood-burning stove, offering a double aspect over the gardens. The spacious dining room, featuring a quarry-tiled floor and built-in storage, is perfect for entertaining. A cosy snug with a charming brick fireplace and wood burner provides a welcoming retreat, while the bright study with a vaulted ceiling is ideal for home working.

The impressive 27' kitchen/breakfast room is the heart of the home, equipped with extensive work surfaces, space for a range cooker, and electric Velux windows. A single door leads to the rear garden, enhancing the indoor-outdoor flow. A stylish refitted cloakroom completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms provide excellent accommodation. The master bedroom enjoys garden views and built-in wardrobes, while the second and third bedrooms also feature fitted storage. The elegant bathroom includes a bath with shower attachment, separate shower unit, and heated towel rail.

The gardens extend to approximately 360' in width, offering a private haven of mature trees, vibrant plants, and a large rear courtyard with a pergola, perfect for entertaining. A substantial workshop, two brick-built stores, and a vegetable garden with a greenhouse complete the outdoor space. The wide private forecourt offers ample parking, with planning permission for a double garage and studio above.
