Don't miss your final opportunity to secure a home in this prestigious, private enclave. Offering exceptional design, premium finishes, and meticulous attention to detail, each property sits within a beautifully landscaped and secure setting.

Located in a select gated cul-de-sac just moments from the open green spaces of Epsom Downs, The Personal Agent is proud to present this stunning collection of brand-new homes by Nuro Homes — a developer renowned for craftsmanship and quality.

With timeless heritage styling and elegant design throughout, these homes deliver a truly turnkey lifestyle, blending modern convenience with the warmth and character often lacking in new builds.

Designed with traditional architecture in mind and finished to an impeccable standard, each home offers spacious, light-filled interiors enhanced by thoughtful design features. Enjoy the added luxuries of secluded rear gardens with mature planting, private resin-bound driveways, and EV charging points — all in a highly sought-after location.

No 5 Amberwood Grove is tucked away at the end of this small development in arguably the most coveted position with a generous wrap around garden and a huge amount of curb appeal. The carefully thought out design has resulted in generous and impressive room sizes that flow perfectly.

The beautiful front door and covered porch immediately set the tone and create a welcoming first impression alongside the entrance hallway with its characterful tiled floor. A particular stand out feature is a seating nook with tongue and groove wood panelling, and on these homes it really is the little touches that all add up to make a big difference.

The 41ft x 27ft main reception area has been cleverly designed to successfully incorporate three defined areas, all coming together to create the ultimate entertaining space. This open plan space is the absolute heart of the home with a stunning shaker style kitchen centred around the imposing rangemaster stove, a must have for any budding chefs. This links directly to the generous dining room and a family room with fitted media wall and Cortizo sliding doors opening to the gardens, giving it an incredible feel.

The ground floor is completed by a TV room/snug, utility cupboard and cloakroom. On the first floor of this home are three incredibly well balanced bedrooms, a stylish ensuite shower room and the beautiful main bathroom that really steals the show with its high quality fitments. From a practical sense the accommodation is completed by a fourth bedroom with ensuite cloakroom on the top floor making it perfect for a teenager or as a guest room.

Further stand out features include underfloor heating on the entire ground floor, air source heat pump, garden irrigation system, video and audio entry system.

Amberwood Grove is an incredible gated cul de sac which enjoys such a fantastic location, just moments from the historic Epsom Downs. Also within walking distance is Tattenham Corner Station, offering access to central London. The M25, and both Heathrow and Gatwick International airports are close by.
