102-103 Marina, St. Leonards-On-Sea, TN38 0BP

Looking for a four-bedroom apartment with sea views and serious space?

This stylish split-level home along Marina in St Leonards delivers over 1,700 square feet, generous living areas, and period details, all in a brilliant central location.

Spread across two floors, this four-bedroom apartment offers a strong mix of character and space. From the front, the building holds the kind of stature that defines St Leonards’ seafront architecture, and inside, the home keeps pace with dark painted floors, high ceilings, and sharp styling throughout. The main living area is generous and calm, with detailed cornicing and large sash windows drawing in sea light. The kitchen is smart and understated, finished with dark cabinetry, white marble surfaces and a subway tile splashback, while a second reception gives the option of a formal 4th bedroom, extra living space, or large home office.

The bathroom continues the look, with dual sinks, painted timber wall panelling and matching dark paintwork, keeping things simple and consistent. The bedrooms, all good sizes, sit across the two levels, giving a real sense of flexibility for anyone needing privacy, quiet working space or guest accommodation.

Located along the Marina, the apartment is close to local cafes, galleries and the seafront. The size and layout make it a great long-term option in a spot that mixes period charm with a growing creative energy.
