“Morwenna is situated towards the top of Trevone bay in the hamlet of Windmill, just moments from the popular sandy beach and rockpools “

Windmill is a tiny hamlet on the outskirts of Trevone Bay, a highly popular coastal village in an area of outstanding natural beauty. There is a beautiful sandy beach, a wonderful separate slate beach ideal for children to go rock pooling, and a fabulous footpath for stunning walks along the North Cornish coast. The highly regarded farm shop, a short walk up the hill, supplies a wonderful range of fresh local produce and the surf shop at the end of the road also has a cafe. The historic and picturesque fishing town of Padstow is less than two miles away and has many lovely cafes, pubs and restaurants including Paul Ainsworth's Michelin-starred No. 6, cool seafood bar Prawn On The Lawn and Rick Stein's esteemed Seafood Restaurant.

To find Morwenna, follow the B3276 coast road out of Padstow towards Trevone, taking signs to Newquay. After half a mile, Morwenna can be found on the left hand side shortly after the turning to Trevone Beach. The postcode for satellite navigation is PL28 8RY. What3words: frizz.sandals.swoop
