Sat in a most enviable position overlooking the Camel Estuary within the highly sought after, historic and picturesque fishing village of Padstow, 44 Treverbyn Road represents a superb opportunity to purchase a substantial home, boasting a beautiful backdrop with lovely views across the Camel Estuary to Rock, Porthilly beach and Daymer Bay. The famous Camel Trail is just moments away!

Originally constructed in the 1930s, 44 Treverbyn Road has painted render block walls, white uPVC windows and has a traditional pitched slate roof.

With over 1,565 square feet, the generous accommodation is arranged with an entrance door to the side before a good size reception hall. There is one double bedroom on the ground floor with Estuary views and a separate shower room for convenience. This is all before stepping through to the open plan kitchen/dining room. This wonderfully social space is filled with natural light and the eye is drawn to the vista across the Estuary. The kitchen is fitted with a modern range of floor and wall cabinets and drawers with an oak block work surface and integrated belling oven and hob and dishwasher. A large opening then leads through to the sitting room - a large dual aspect space with Estuary views and a conservatory to the rear leading the garden.

Up on the first floor are four more bedrooms, three with views of the Estuary and the master a generous size with a stylish en-suite bathroom. There is also a family bathroom, again stylish and modern in finish.

Steal away some quiet time in the private and enclosed rear garden, mostly lawned with a beautiful mature Cherry Blossom, garden shed, concrete paths and detached garage to the side.

44 Treverbyn Road has the advantage of a private driveway with parking for several vehicles, alongside a good size front lawn and established hedge boundaries. Services to the property include mains gas, water, electricity and drainage. EPC rating C. Council tax Band E.
