Jackie Stanley are delighted to bring to the market this three bedroom cottage located moments from the harbourside of the quaint, sought after and historic picturesque fishing village of Port Isaac.

Jasmine Cottage has three storeys of bespoke accommodation combining originality and character with modernistic style.

This beautiful cottage with a welcoming ambience has the benefit of a leased parking space on Church Hill, transferable to a new owner and a valuable commodity in quaint Port Isaac.

Noteworthy features include beamed ceilings, slate flagged flooring, a Franco Belge multi fuel stove, exposed stone walls and original small paned windows.

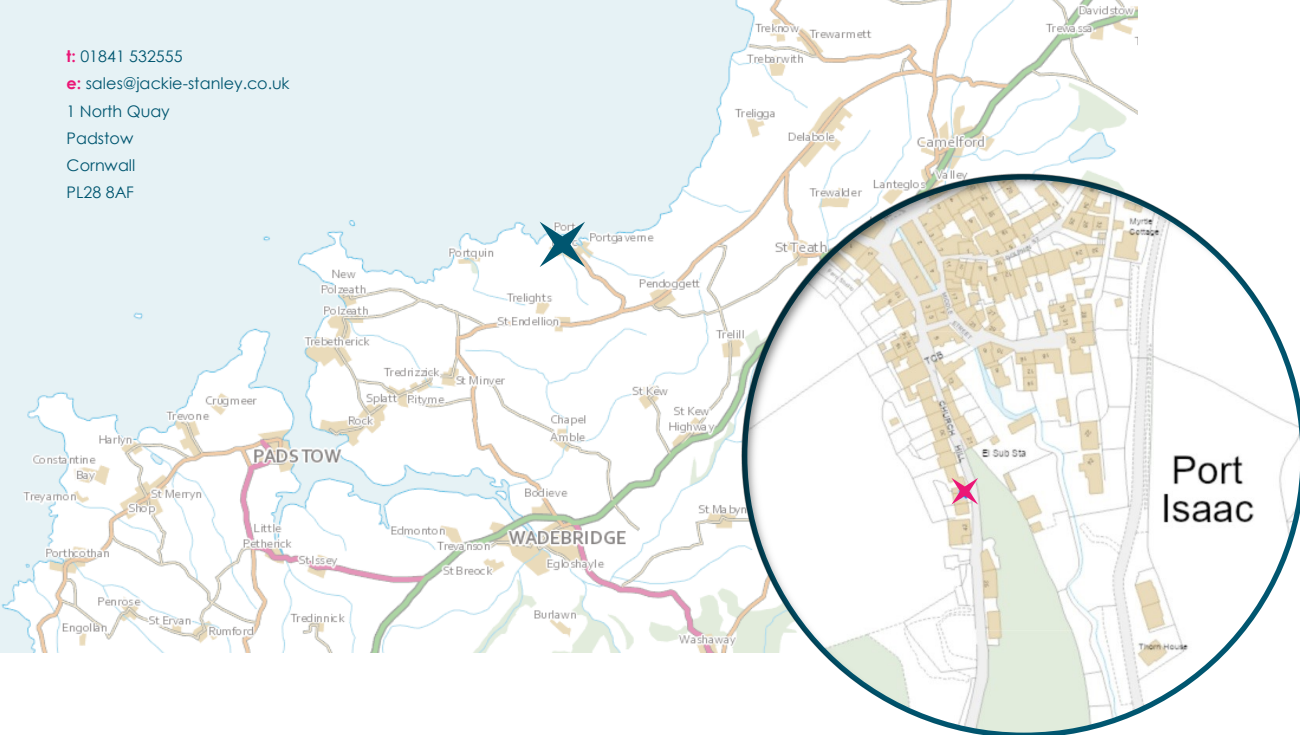

The accommodation briefly comprises a stable door entrance into the open plan ground floor which incorporates a modern kitchen with integrated appliances and slate work surfaces. There is ample space for a dining room table and chairs together with sofas focused around the attractive fireplace. Doors to the rear of the room lead onto the first terrace.

Stairs rise to the first floor where one will find two inviting double bedrooms and an elegant shower room with limestone tiles and traditional fittings. Stairs again rise to the second floor attic bedroom which has a triple aspect including views to the harbour and sea. The sloping ceiling includes A frame beams, Velux and dormer windows and there en-suite cloakroom facilities.

Port Isaac is a quaint, historic picturesque fishing village, well known globally for its association with Doc Martin and the Fisherman's Friends. This sought after destination offers breathtaking walks across the surrounding dramatic coastline of North Cornwall as well as having its own beach and working harbour. There are delightful boutiques and galleries for those who wish to explore the magical narrow streets and to finish off you can always pop into one of the cosy cafés, pubs or Michelin star restaurants of Nathan Outlaw. The neighbouring village of Port Gaverne was once a thriving 19th Century fishing port and to this day remains unspoilt with the sheltered sandy beach protected by the National Trust. Watersports equipment is available for hire so one can get out and experience water based activities.

TOTAL FLOOR AREA : 785 sq.ft. (72.9 sq.m.) approx.
