Just a short five minute drive or fifteen minute walk from the sandy, surfing and dog-friendly beach at Trebarwith Strand is this deceptively large period property boasting spectacular views across Trebarwith Strand.

Strand House is an impressive period property situated in a tranquil and elevated position in the pretty coastal hamlet of Treknock on the rugged North coast of Cornwall. Being in an area of outstanding natural beauty and with immediate access to the south west coast path via the adjacent byway and public footpaths.

The accommodation is provided over three levels, the entrance hall is inviting and spacious, with original floor tiles. There are two reception rooms, both with front facing views and both with working fireplaces.

The hallway leads through to a generous kitchen dining area with access to the rear of the property, garden and parking area. The Kitchen and dining space has ample room for a dining room table and chairs. The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern base cabinets, wall units and integrated Aga style electric oven. Again with that desirable local Delabole slate flooring.

Up onto the first floor there are three spacious double bedrooms. Bedroom one features an original fireplace, light and airy feel with a desirable ensuite. Bedroom two is another front facing room with a charming fireplace. Bedroom three is situated at the rear, features an ensuite shower room and enjoys beautiful garden views. There is a further family bathroom complete with shower enclosure and panelled bath. The second floor has two further large and spacious double bedrooms.

The garden at Strand House offers low maintenance landscaping with a selection of plants, flowers and two apple trees. Two gates give access to the road behind and the gravelled parking area, which can park up to five cars. There is also a timber garden shed, garage and workshop. The workshop is fully equipped with electric and water supply. To the front is a decked area with space for a table and chairs to enjoy the views across to Trebarwith Strand. Services to the property include mains water, electricity and oil fired central heating system.

EPC rating F. Council tax band D. Ofcom suggest superfast broadband availability. Ofcom suggest 4G mobile coverage.

Strand House is an instantly impressive period home and we at Jackie Stanley highly recommend an internal viewing to fully appreciate all that the property has to offer.

Treknaw is a small and peaceful hamlet situated on the North coast of Cornwall between the villages of Trebarwith Strand and Tintagel. The stunning tidal beach at Trebarwith Strand is a 10 to 15 minute walk through the valley via footpaths which is popular with tourists throughout the year. Trebarwith provides several beach shops, two cafes and The Port William cliff top bar & restaurant with its staggering sea views. There are beautiful cliff top walks either side of the valley with one direction leading to Tintagel and the other to Port Isaac. Further up the valley are lovely woodland walks and the popular Mill House pub and restaurant. A range of local amenities can be found in the neighbouring village of Tintagel offering a pharmacy, infant and primary schools, a selection of restaurants and public houses and a post office. The village is also famed for its links to the legend of King Arthur and is home to the castle ruins. For a more comprehensive range of shopping facilities, the towns of Wadebridge and Camelford are within easy reach by car.

To find Strand House, follow the A39 from Wadebridge signposted to Camelford. After approximately 9 miles, turn left onto the B3266 signposted to Boscastle and Tintagel. Follow the B3266 for approximately 2 miles and then turn left onto the B3314 signposted to Tintagel. Turn Left onto Treligga Downs Road to Trebarwith Strand and Tintagel. Follow this road for approximately four miles and then turn left signposted to Treknaw. Follow this lane to the right onto Treknaw Lane and Strand house can be found on the right hand side.
