£200,000

Offering full-time residency to the over 50's, this spacious double park home is set within the sought after Roydon Marina Village complex, with on site restaurant offering Indian cuisine and waterfront cafe and bar.

The current owner has begun a programme of refurbishment and the work so far has been carried out to an excellent standard. New internal insulation, walls and some new double glazed windows feature in the two bedrooms, together with a luxury re-fitted, contemporary 'wet room'.

An incoming buyer now has the opportunity to carry on with the improvements, which would involve new double glazed units to the remaining windows, fitting a new kitchen and re-decoration, thus being able to add their own stamp as to how they would wish to complete the project.

The spacious accommodation comprises: Lounge with off-set dining area which is open plan to the kitchen, two double bedrooms and a luxury wet room. The property also benefits from central heating to radiators, double glazing, (some brand new) and wrap around gardens.

Being adjacent to the marina, one can enjoy lovely walks along the River Stort or stroll into Roydon Village which has a convenience store/post office, chemist, pubs/restaurants and Roydon mainline station (Stansted Express line serving London Liverpool Street or Cambridge in a little over half an hour.
