THE PROPERTY

An exceptional opportunity to acquire this stunning, Edwardian semi-detached family home situated in the highly sought after village of Roydon, recently voted the best commuter village in 'The Telegraph'.

The property has been in the same family ownership since the 1970's and retains some features of the period such as high ceilings, sash windows, original doors and some coving/cornice. The property requires some updating and modernisation throughout, however the house has been maintained and although dated, is offered in a good liveable state.

Having never been extended as far as we are aware, there is huge potential to alter and enlarge this fabulous house, subject to the usual planning consents.

The ground floor features a traditional reception hall, spacious living room, formal dining room, kitchen, rear lobby and shower room. The first floor has three double bedrooms and family bathroom.

The second offers a further bedroom with a deep eaves storage area.

The generous gardens are a wonderful feature, offering a great space and plenty of privacy. Mainly laid to lawn with mature planting and trees, the garden will continue to be tended until the property is sold.
