THE PROPERTY

Beale Oaken is a handsome, detached former farmhouse believed to date to approximately 1910, with later additions. The property has been in the same ownership for several decades and has been extended and improved during this time to provide a stunning family home with almost 4,500 sq feet of living space, private balcony, a generous plot approaching 3 acres and various outbuildings.

As one would hope, this beautiful property benefits from some great features indicative of the period, including large, classic windows allowing for plenty of natural light, high ceilings, picture rails and coved cornice to the original part of the house, attractive cast iron fireplaces, and wood panel doors throughout.

The accommodation spans three floors and in brief offers: Enclosed vestibule, spacious reception hall, guest cloakroom/w.c, drawing room, study, formal dining room, open plan kitchen/breakfast room and utility room. A later addition is the impressive formal living room, with doors opening to the gardens, which is perfect for large family gatherings or entertaining.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom enjoys the luxury of en-suite facilities and access to the roof terrace. Four additional double bedrooms are served by a family bathroom and a separate cloakroom.

The second floor comprises of two further generous size bedrooms which could be utilised in different ways, depending on a buyer's requirements.

EXTERIOR

The house is approached via a carriage driveway with parking for numerous vehicles leading to a double garage.

DETACHED GARAGE 6.30m x 5.75 (20'8" x 18'10")

Brick built under a pitch tiled roof. Up and over door. Power and light connected. There is a first floor space with a window fitted, however this has not been formally converted.

PLOT AND OUTBUILDINGS

The three acre plot spans out and is well hidden from view, opening up to reveal a collection of established outbuildings that include a large 60ft. long workshop with a head height of over 16ft, two Nissan huts and stables covering a combined area approaching 4,000sq/ft, with an added historic footprint extending the potential further.

The site features independent gated access off Tylers Road. This area of the land could lend itself to a huge variety of uses. This would still leave a generous plot for the house should this route be taken.
