Located in the desirable village of Guilsborough, The Old Grammar School is a fine Grade II listed building that was constructed in 1688. This historic property is a remarkable example of Jacobean architecture and is rich in character and historical interest. The Old Grammar School was founded by Sir John Langham with the intention of providing free education for children in the local area.

This two-story three bedroom home is one of the five unique and individual freehold properties within The Old Grammar School. The interior of the property offers spacious and character filled accommodation. As you enter, you'll find yourself in a large lounge/dining room, which was formerly the dining hall of the Old Grammar School. This room boasts high ceilings, stone mullion windows that allow ample natural light, oak flooring, and a stone and slate fireplace, adding to the charm and character of the space. There is a lobby area that provides access to a modern kitchen, the rear lobby and a downstairs cloakroom. Moving upstairs to the first floor, there are three double bedrooms, bathroom and a separate re-fitted WC, additionally, there is a walk-in linen cupboard. Externally, the property offers an enclosed rear courtyard, providing a private outdoor space. There is also a driveway that provides off road parking and a single garage for further parking or storage. To the front of the property you'll find a small garden area laid to lawn.

In summary, this home within The Old Grammar School presents a unique opportunity to own a property filled with character and history. With its spacious accommodation, charming features, and convenient amenities, it offers comfortable living in a desirable village.
