A personal comment from the owner.

'This last ten years, or so, I have loved living at Willow Chase, it's such a quiet part of Hazlemere, whilst at the same time being in striking distance of the mainline station into London. Some key features, that I truly love, is the gated front garden which offers completed privacy, and the private south facing back garden. Although it's in a quiet road, it still has easy access to local amenities, coffee shops, recreation ground, local Tesco, the community is wonderful and friendly.'
