This four-bedroom detached house presents a unique opportunity for prospective buyers to create a sensational family residence, whilst the house is liveable, with modernisation will become a very desirable modern family home. Situated on an impressively large south-facing plot without any onward chain, this attractive character property boasts over 2000 sq ft of living space, ideal for those seeking a project to make their own. Upon entering through the large welcoming hall, one is immediately struck by the potential that this residence offers, with a bay-windowed sitting room, three additional reception rooms, and a kitchen awaiting transformation. The principal bedroom features an ensuite shower room, while a further two double bedrooms and generous single bedroom are served by the family bathroom. This property is not just a house; it is a blank canvas waiting to become a home.

Stepping outside, the property continues to impress with its expansive south-facing rear garden, the perfect canvas for green-fingered enthusiasts or a safe haven for little ones to play. Embraced by mature hedging, the garden provides a serene and private oasis, complete with a summer house and kidney shaped swimming pool with a pool house for relaxation or entertaining. The ample driveway parking leads to a detached double garage, ensuring ample space for vehicles and storage. Those who enjoy outdoor activities will appreciate the proximity to Common Wood, offering picturesque trails for dog walking and countryside strolls. Additionally, the property is conveniently located near local shops, transport links, and highly-regarded schools, making it an ideal choice for families looking to settle in this sought-after area.
