LOCATION

McWilliam Road is located in popular North Woodingdean, with local shops and the library in nearby Warren Road, which also has bus stops giving access to both Brighton town centre and Rottingdean.

For those with children Woodingdean has two primary schools; these are Woodingdean Primary school and Rudyard Kipling Primary school as well as not being far from Longhill secondary school. Buses travelling into the city can be easily connected to form routes to other school such as Cardinal Newman and Vardean both of which also boast sixth forms.

Local parks can be found in Bexhill Road and Rudyard Road, there is also a larger park which is in Happy Valley with popular walks for dogs and their owners. There are also several access routes for dog walkers, runners/hikers and cyclist which take you on various nature trails over the Downs and Farmland. McWilliam Road is just a short walk to the Drove Road which runs along the back of Woodingdean and links up with the cycle route to Falmer Village and the Amex Stadium and further Downland Walks in Bullock Hill.
