What the owner says:

"This has been our family home for many years and it has been perfect in every aspect. The generous living space, kitchen and garden room and the large gardens to the front and rear make it a great social place and have provided plenty of room for our children to play and grow. The decent sized bedrooms also provide ample personal space for everyone (essential as the kids grew into adults).

The location has been ideal - with schools, shops and a park nearby. The sea front, the Downs and the town are also all within easy reach. The A27 and A23 and the coast road are all accessed easily. The views over the Downs and out towards the sea are what made an immediate and lasting impact when we first came to look at the property.

We have made many memories here which we will cherish and we hope whoever follows will be equally happy."
