What the owner says:

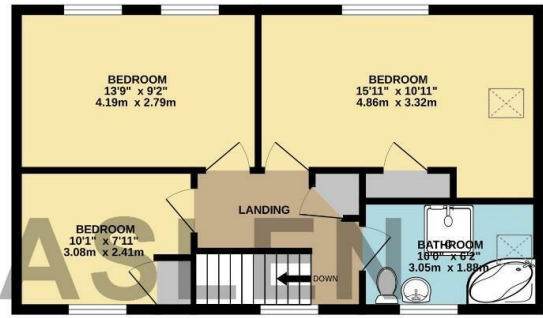

"This was my parents' house for over 35 years. It was an amazing family home in a lovely communal setting and I have many wonderful memories of living there. Set back from the road with its own driveway and dropped kerb, the house offers easy access to all the local facilities, including Stanmer park and woods. A huge plus is the big, southwest-facing back garden and patio which is a fantastic suntrap, and has fruit trees and many mature shrubs and bushes that provide a riot of colour in the summer. With bright, airy rooms, a convivial kitchen/diner, and the potential to extend further, this is a wonderful home for a family to grow up in and make memories."
