Positioned at the western end of Colbourne Road, this IMPRESSIVE 1920's home stands apart from its Edwardian neighbours, offering a WONDERFUL OPPORTUNITY to acquire a spacious, BAY-FRONTED period property. Thoughtfully extended, the house includes additional accommodation in the loft which currently features two extra bedrooms but could easily be reconfigured into a luxurious master suite adjoining to the existing shower room. Viewings are highly recommended. Energy Rating: C70

Spanning three floors, the property benefits from gas-fired central heating and replacement uPVC double-glazed windows with leaded light detailing at the front. It comprises 4 bedrooms, a nursery / study and a family bathroom, providing flexible living space. The ground floor features a welcoming reception area with built-in cabinetry flanking the chimney breast, while the rear dining space seamlessly flows from the well-appointed kitchen—ideal for entertaining and family living. The kitchen includes built-in cooking appliances and space for a fridge/freezer, washing machine and dishwasher. It also benefits from having gated access at the rear of the garden to a path leading from Colbourne Road - ideal for removing garden waste and bike storage.

It is within easy reach of Seven Dials, which offers an excellent selection of boutique shops, restaurants and bars. Both Brighton and Hove city centres are close by, as are Brighton and Hove stations—perfect for commuters. The seafront is a 15 minute walk.
