Built of stone under a tiled roof, Rose Cottage has been created by the division of a double fronted Georgian house into two properties. Rose Cottage therefore forms the end of a short terrace and is accessed via an entrance door opening from the yard into an extension on the side of the original building.

A half-glazed entrance door opens from the yard into

Kitchen: fitted with a modern range of cream coloured, shaker style cabinet with laminate worktops, a stainless-steel sink, an electric fan oven, gas hob and concealed cooker hood. There are spaces for a fridge, freezer and dishwasher. There are windows to the front and rear and a hatch with drop down ladder up to an attic void over this single-story extension. A connecting door opens from the kitchen, up a step into Lounge: A flexible room with a laminate floor and window to the front, plus a glass brick window to the rear.

1st Floor:

A door at the rear of the living room opens onto a winding staircase that rises up to a first floor landing from where doors open to ...

Shower Room: The bathroom has a modern white suite including a double shower cubicle with thermostatic shower fitment, pedestal wash basin and low flush WC. An airing cupboard now offers shelved storage and there is a window to the side. Laminate wet-walling, panelled ceiling and vinyl floor. Heated towel radiator and extractor fan.

Bedroom 1: A double room with a window to the front looking out over the town and shelved recess.

2nd Floor:

The staircase rises to a small landing with doors opening to ...

Bedroom 2: A twin room with a dormer window facing to the front giving views over rooftops onto the harbour and marina. A hatch opens to an eaves storage void at the rear.

Bedroom 3: A single bedroom, currently presented with a double bed and a dormer window facing to the front.

Outside

The property has a small forecourt area with a gate onto steps down to the street and a small outbuilding which provides storage and space for an automatic washing machine.

A second outbuilding belongs to No.4 Green Lane.
