PARTICULARS OF SALE

This 1930s semi-detached property is slightly dated but ripe for upgrading and redevelopment. Offering 1 bedroom bungalow accommodation on the ground floor, there are 2 further dormer bedrooms on the first floor.

From the driveway a panelled entrance door opens into an L shaped hallway with leaded glass windows facing to the side and a panelled staircase rising to the first floor with a useful store cupboard beneath. From here doors open to...

The lounge has a wide, curved bay window, with leaded glass windows featuring coloured glass, looking onto the front garden and across to the White Leys sports field. The focal point of the room is a modern gas flame effect fire. Ceiling cornice.

The dining room has a broad window facing onto the rear garden and has a gas fire with a back boiler plus a built-in airing cupboard in the recess to the side.

There is one bedroom on the ground floor. A modest double room with a window to the front.

The bathroom has a window to the side and is fitted with an avocado coloured suite including a panel bath and a wash basin. The WC is separate, lying adjacent to the bathroom, and has its own window to the side.

The kitchen lies to the rear, at the end of the L-shaped entrance hallway and is a simple room with a window to the side and door into the back garden. A further door opens into a shelved larder with a further window to the side.

1st Floor

The staircase rises from the entrance hallway to a small landing where a hatch opens into an eaves store with a rooflight to the rear. further doors open to ...

A double bedroom with a dormer window to the front giving views as far as the sea in the distance. This room has a bedroom fireplace and 2 built in cupboards. There is also a single bedroom on this level with a dormer window to the side looking down over the town and towards Whitby Abbey.

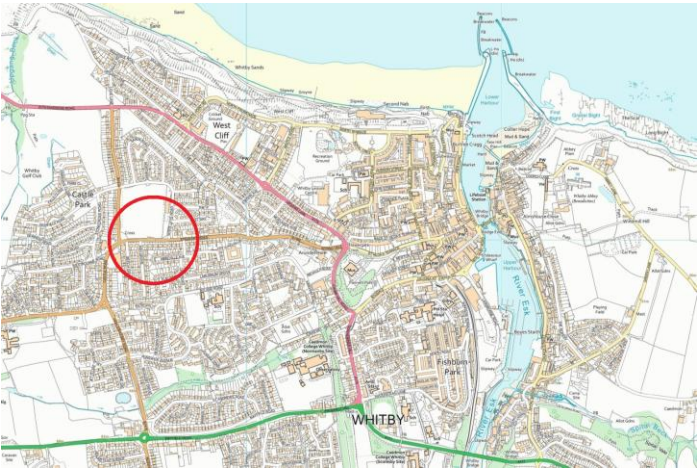

Outside

To the front the garden is terraced and part paved. To the rear there is grassed garden with a timber garden shed and a sectional concrete single garage (26' x 9' external). A long block paved driveway offers off-street parking for a number of cars.
