MARSTON BROOK FARM, MARSTON BANK, MARSTON MONTGOMERY, ST14 5BT

An exceptional detached country residence occupying an idyllic position on the fringe of the sought after village of Marston Montgomery. The property stands on an extensive plot extending to approximately 1.6 acres with natural stream running along the boundary and south westerly facing gardens overlooking open countryside.

In recent years the property has undergone a superb transformation to include full refurbishment of the property to the highest of standards, a substantial extension and the addition of an oak framed orangery taking full advantage of the views over the gardens and adjoining farmland. Sympathetically restored, carefully retaining many fine original features which are complemented by the comforts of modern day living. The refurbishment programme includes: a high specification bespoke kitchen; oak woodwork including windows, internal doors, architraves and skirting boards; two fully fitted bathroom suites both with free standing bath and separate shower cubicle; new roof; installation of an Ensign eight person sewage treatment plant; electric underfloor heating in the kitchen and orangery.

Approached through an electric gate and over a long sweeping driveway leading to the three bay garage, two of which are open fronted and one with double doors. The gardens are landscaped and designed to provide various seating areas to enjoy the many beautiful aspects. There is a large orchard with various fruit trees, fully fenced and enclosed ideal for keeping chickens or small animals.

The property is located within a short walk of the village pub, village hall and primary school. Conveniently placed between the towns of Ashbourne and Uttoxeter. JCB world headquarters are also only a short commute away.
