

The HaHa Park House Court,
Stoke Golding,
, CV13 6HP

£750,000

GENERAL

The HaHa forms half of Park House, a handsome period property located on the edge of Stoke Golding. There are superb far reaching Southerly and Westerly views and over an ancient monument that adjoins the property. The house was sympathetically restored by the present owners who have successfully created a stylish and elegant home. The accommodation briefly includes on the ground floor, a large open plan living area zoned for living and dining, connecting into the bespoke kitchen. The accommodation is completed on the ground floor by a superb garden room and utility. There are five double bedrooms and three bathrooms, spread over the first and second floors. There is underfloor heating throughout the ground floor which, as well as creating a comfortable living environment, gives the owner complete flexibility as to how the space is organized. A particular feature are the beautiful south west facing landscaped gardens.

NOTE: There is the option to purchase 5.6 acres which adjoins the property if so required, by separate negotiation with the owners.

LOCATION

The house is in the highly desirable village of Stoke Golding, the birth place of the Tudor dynasty. It lies between Hinckley and Market Bosworth which both provide a wide variety of amenities including shops, banks and restaurants.. Stoke Golding itself has a church, public houses, village hall, two schools and various sports clubs. There is a bus service to Hinckley and excellent road links to the A5/M69/M1/M6/M42 together with rail services from both Hinckley and Nuneaton.
