GENERAL

'The Huntingtons' by Tony Morris Builders, is an exclusive gated development of five outstanding village houses located on the edge of Stapleton. The scheme, which has been designed by Hayward Architects, has been carefully thought-out to fit seamlessly into this lovely village setting with some beautiful detailing including feather edged oak boarding and limestone walling. The layouts work perfectly for contemporary living at its finest with wonderful open-plan zoned living kitchens with bi-fold doors opening directly into the gardens, sitting rooms with woodburning stoves, home offices and sumptuous master bedrooms.
