

Sparkhill House, 38 Main Street,
Shackerstone,
CV13 6NR

£1,450,000

GENERAL

A stunning village house on an exceptional plot with views over fields towards Ashby Canal. Sparkhill House is located in the idyllic village of Shackerstone, where properties of this quality rarely come onto the market. The house has been remodelled and upgraded by the present owners with considerable flair and meticulous attention to detail. The accommodation is centred on the sensational living kitchen with bi folds opening onto the garden. On the ground floor there is also a charming sitting room with beamed ceiling and home office. On the first floor there is a sumptuous master bedroom suite with dressing room and shower room together with a guest bedroom suite and two further double bedrooms. The house is set well back from the road with two gated entrance. There is a large garage block with storage over and beautifully landscaped gardens. It should be noted that planning permission has been granted for an annexe to be created utilising part of the garage and the adjoining grooming room. This setup would work perfectly for multi generational living.

LOCATION

Shackerstone is without doubt one of the most exclusive villages in the area and is set amongst some of West Leicestershire's finest countryside. There is a public house in the village and a highly regarded primary school which lies between Shackerstone and the neighboring village of Congerstone. The Ashby canal runs past the village and there is also a small railway station which serves the battlefield lines. In the summer there are often steam trains running between Shackerstone and Shenton. The historic town of Market Bosworth lies to the South where there are some interesting shops and restaurants overlooking the Market Place. Market Bosworth has a traditional market every Wednesday as well as a Farmers Market that is held on the fourth Sunday of every month. It is a thriving community with a variety of sports clubs including rugby, football and bowls. The town is home to excellent primary and secondary schools and one of the area's leading private schools, The Dixie Grammar. It is also close to Twycross House School and Preparatory School for children aged 4-18.
