GENERAL

Boyard Cottage is a stunning contemporary cottage which has been built with meticulous attention to detail and considerable style. Although the cottage is a newly built the design is inspired by the barns that originally stood on the site. A particular feature of the cottage is the good sized South facing garden. On the ground floor there is a superb living kitchen with bespoke bi-fold doors opening onto the garden terrace, a dining hall/snug and sitting room with a French door opening into the garden. On the first floor there are three double bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite.

The quality of the build is outstanding with some beautiful finishes including bespoke windows hand built by 'Peartree' of Hinckley, traditional kitchen cabinets with quartz worksurfaces and luxurious bathrooms. Particular attention has been made to the appearance of the cottage with hand made bricks, reclaimed Victorian rosemary tiles and dog tooth detailing to the brickwork.

LOCATION

Austrey is a thriving village with a village shop/post office, primary school, two churches, a public house and a village hall. A wider range of amenities are available in Tamworth and Ashby-de-la-Zouch. The village is close to the M42 which provides links to Birmingham, Leicester, Coventry, Derby and Nottingham. Rail services are available in Tamworth and Nuneaton and the two international airports at Birmingham and East Midlands are easily accessible. There are a number of private and state schools in the area and also great opportunities for outdoor pursuits such as walking, cycling, horse riding and sailing.
