

Huntington House (plot 5) Ashby Road,
Stapleton,
Leicestershire, LE9 8JB

£825,000

GENERAL

GENERAL

'The Huntingtons' by Tony Morris Builders, is an exclusive gated development of five outstanding village houses located on the edge of Stapleton. The scheme, which has been designed by Hayward Architects, has been carefully thought-out to fit seamlessly into this lovely village setting with some beautiful detailing including feather edged oak boarding and limestone walling. There are four individually designed houses and the original property, which has been comprehensively re modelled and renovated.

The layouts work perfectly for contemporary living at its finest with wonderful open-plan zoned living kitchens with bi-fold doors opening directly into the gardens, sitting rooms with woodburning stoves, home offices and sumptuous master bedrooms. The houses are incredibly well specified with luxurious bathrooms, bespoke kitchens with quartz worktops and high-end appliances.

For those who value security and seclusion, this gated development offers a sense of exclusivity and peace of mind.

LOCATION

'The Huntingtons' is located on the edge of Stapleton, a highly regarded West Leicestershire village. There is an outstanding range of facilities in the nearby historic town of Market Bosworth, including some interesting speciality shops and restaurants centred on the market place, numerous sports clubs and the highly regarded Dixie Grammar School. There are lovely walks in the area along the nearby Ashby Canal and through the Bosworth Battlefield. Stapleton is well located for access to the Midlands motorway network and nearby mainline railway stations include Nuneaton, Rugby and Leicester.
