

The Croft & Leascroft 30 & 30A Main Street,
Orton on the Hill,
CV9 3NN

£1,250,000

GENERAL

A superb village plot comprising a traditional dormer bungalow called 'The Croft' and a contemporary house called 'Leascroft' in an idyllic setting of approximately 2.77 acres of gardens and paddocks. Both properties are set in beautifully landscaped gardens and have exceptional Southerly views over the adjoining paddocks. It should be noted that there is potential, subject to the usual consents, to extend and further develop each property and indeed the owner has prepared plans for an additional dwelling which are available to any purchaser.

The property would be ideal for an extended family or a single purchaser wishing to generate an additional income through rental or Airbnb.

LOCATION

The properties are located in the highly regarded village of Orton on the Hill on the Leicestershire/Warwickshire borders. The property is surrounded by open countryside and has good access to the main Midlands motorway network via the A5/A444 and Junction 11 of the M42, Birmingham airport is also within easy reach and there is a main line rail service to London from Nuneaton. There is private schooling which can be found at Twycross and Market Bosworth. The historic town of Market Bosworth is close by. In Market Bosworth there are some interesting shops and restaurants overlooking the market place and there are some lovely walks in the area.

THE CROFT

A magnificent dormer bungalow with spacious, well proportioned accommodation set in idyllic gardens with wonderful country views. Although the bungalow has been well loved and looked after it does now require some modernisation. The accommodation briefly comprises an impressive sitting room, dining room, breakfast kitchen and conservatory.
