Hillyards Estate Agents bring to the market this rarely available detached Victorian house that is being offered to the market with no onward chain. The property is located on the outskirts of Aylesbury town centre and within walking distance of a main-line station that offers a regular service to Central London. The property requires modernisation throughout and still offers many of its original features including fireplaces and sash windows. Currently the accommodation consists of lounge, dining room, study, kitchen & wet room on the ground floor and four bedrooms and bathroom to the first floor. Other benefits include good size rear garden, larger than average garage alongside and driveway parking. This property will make an ideal family home as its located with the catchment for excellent local schools as well as being close to the sought-after Grammar Schools.
