GENERAL REMARKS

SITUATION & DIRECTIONS

The property enjoys a delightful location on the fringes of the rural village of Pentrellyncymmer being one mile from Brenig and Alwen reservoirs which are noted for their outdoor recreational activities including fishing and sailing. The nearby village of Cerrigydrudion includes a general store shop, post office, primary school and public house. The nearby main A5 trunk road provides easy access to the village of Betws y Coed which is known as the gateway to Snowdonia. The property benefits an idyllic country setting with impressive open countryside views and beyond.

From Denbigh proceed initially along the A543 (in the direction of Pentrefoelas and then the B4501 towards Cerrigydrudion) for about 13 miles. Thereafter turn left for Pentrellyncynmer and then continue for about 1 mile. Proceed through the Hamlet of Pentrellyncymmer over the bridge and proceed up the hill where the property will be found on the left hand side.
