Welcome to The Empire, an exclusive haven for those aged 50 and above, seamlessly blending timeless elegance with modern luxury in the heart of Bath's renowned UNESCO World Heritage city. Originally Bath's premier luxury hotel in 1901, The Empire has been meticulously restored to its former glory, transforming into a well-managed apartment building that offers an exceptional living experience.

This charming one-bedroom apartment, located on the prime fifth floor, offers a delightful blend of natural light and magnificent views of Georgian Bath and the picturesque hills. Access is effortless, thanks to two lifts and a grand staircase that beckons you to your elegant abode.

Step into a reception room adorned with a central fireplace and dining area, seamlessly flowing into an adjoining galley kitchen with integrated appliances. The spacious bedroom exudes charm, and a well-appointed bathroom completes the accommodation. Impeccably maintained and kept in excellent condition, this residence is complemented by an in-house service team available Monday to Friday and a weekly hairdresser service, ensuring a splendid home in the heart of the City Centre.

As a resident, you'll have the privilege of enjoying exceptional communal spaces within The Empire. Grand dining and living rooms, a billiard room, and more await your exploration. The building's history adds a unique charm to your living experience, providing a sense of heritage and character.

Beyond your private quarters, discover the award-winning rooftop garden, a serene oasis featuring raised flower beds, charming pergolas, and inviting tables and chairs. Gardening enthusiasts will find this space particularly welcoming, providing a tranquil place to unwind and connect with nature.

The Empire invites you to a lifestyle where community, history, and luxury converge
