A beautifully proportioned two bedroom period apartment located in the highly sought after Lansdown area of Bath just off Richmond road.

Northfields House is a large Georgian villa which is believed to date back to the early to mid 1800s and was more recently converted into five luxury apartments.

The apartment comprises good size sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room, master bedroom, second bedroom and bathroom, all of which are presented in good decorative order.

The property is further enhanced with period features.

Externally, there is attractive communal gardens and an allocated parking space with visitor parking.

Early viewing recommended.
