Glyn-Jones and Company are delighted to offer for sale this detached family house which offers bright and spacious accommodation throughout.

The accommodation comprises; an entrance hall, a triple aspect living room, a fitted kitchen/diner with an integral gas hob and electric oven and a door leading into a separate utility room with the boiler and a door to a cloakroom. To the first floor there are three bedrooms with an en-suite shower room to the master as well as an additional family bathroom. The property benefits from gas fired central heating and double glazing.

Externally, there is a wall enclosed rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn with a patio area, a timber shed and a side access gate. A further attribute is there is a garage situated to the side which is currently converted into a home office (and could easily be reverted back into a functional garage if required) and benefits from double glazed windows, an access door, power, light and a pitched roof which allows ample storage space. To the front of the garage there is a driveway for numerous vehicles. Viewing is advised.
