

An aerial photograph of a three-story Victorian-style house with a large garden and patio. The house has a white facade with a bay window on the ground floor and a smaller bay window on the first floor. The garden is lush with greenery, including a lawn, shrubs, and a large tree. A paved patio area with outdoor furniture and umbrellas is visible in the foreground. The house is surrounded by other residential buildings in a town setting.

RESTAURANT PLUS ACCOMMODATION

19A Esplanade (COMMERICAL), Lowestoft, Suffolk, NR33 0QG

PRICE REDUCED - Nestled in the charming Esplanade of Lowestoft, this exquisite business boasts a prime location with direct access to the beach, offering unparalleled views of the sea. The property presents an exciting opportunity for those with an entrepreneurial spirit, as it comes with fantastic potential (partially furnished & equipped) to continue the project started by the vendors to expand an already established Tearoom/cafe, together with a basement BAR (KRAKEN BAR) which provides local musical acts and the venue is already gaining a healthy following. In addition, the vendors are also in the process of creating a substantial area on the top floor for conversion to flats with excellent rental potential.

Imagine the possibilities of owning a property that not only provides a comfortable private accommodation but also opens doors to various business ventures. Whether you dream of owning a quaint tea room where guests can enjoy the serene sea views or envision a lively bar where locals and tourists alike can gather for entertainment, this property offers a canvas for your aspirations.

With its superb location, business potential, and existing amenities like the tea rooms and bar, this property on Lowestoft's beautiful Esplanade is a rare find that combines the best of both worlds - a tranquil seaside retreat and a promising business opportunity.
