

THE GATE & BARN, AUSTWICK

£525,000

THE GATE, AUSTWICK, LA2 8BN

Fantastic three bedroom stone built character cottage located in a superb and convenient position near to the centre of this popular Yorkshire Dales village.

The cottage offers spacious accommodation laid over two floors with many interesting features evident throughout.

Formerly two cottages made into one in the 1990s, with large farmhouse style living kitchen, through lounge, cloakroom and hallways to the ground floor, wide landing, three double bedrooms and generous shower room to the first floor.

Outside, spectacular private south facing mature walled garden with many interesting trees and shrubs.

Detached stone built barn/workshop and lean to with forecourt parking, ideal for garaging/hobbies or has development potential subject to the necessary approvals.

The property has many nooks and crannies, beams and boarded doors plus single glazed multi paned windows and oil fired central heating.

A real gem of a property in a very sought after location which needs to be viewed to be fully appreciated.

Austwick is an active village set amid stunning countryside with local amenities such as village store, public house, country hotel, village hall, church and playing field/sports club.

The popular market town of Settle is approximately 5 miles where a wider range of amenities are available.
