Property Description

The property is in the centre of Woodford Halse village with convenient access to a good range of local facilities and has the added benefit of being situated adjacent to The Great Central Woodland.

The village experienced significant transformation in the 19th century with the arrival of the railway and the opening of the London and Birmingham Railway. Although the railway's importance dwindled in the 20th century, it has been revitalised as a social club, maintaining Woodford Halse's strong railway heritage as encapsulated by its Grade II Listed status.

The village is not only rich in history but also benefits from a 10-Acre woodland in the heart of the village and is surrounded by pristine countryside, offering ample outdoor activities such as walking trails and nature reserves. Nearby notable sites to visit include Fawsley Hall Hotel and Park, Canons Ashby, and Badby Woods.

Woodford Halse has a vibrant community life and a great range of facilities and amenities including a Primary School, Butchers, Florist, Chemist, several takeaways, a Community Library, and a public house - the Fleur De Leys. For those commuting to London, nearby mainline stations at Banbury and Rugby provide efficient connections. Combining a countryside setting with a good range of local amenities and services, Woodford Halse is an ideal place to settle.
