The Property

With a rather special 32ft open plan lounge-diner-family room is this four-bedroom, two bathroom detached home located in a quiet cul-de-dac location in the heart of one of south Oxfordshire most desirable villages. With approaching 2000sq ft of accommodation this practical family home offers driveway parking and garage. The downstairs layout comprises entrance hall/boot room, study area, cloak-room, kitchen-breakfast room, utility room with integral access to the garage, and very impressive lounge-diner-family room with wood burning stove, cabinetry and sliding doors to the garden. On the first floor there is a family bathroom and four generous bedrooms; the master with dressing area and en-suite shower room. To the front of the property there is a driveway which leads to a garage. Finally, to the rear; there is a predominantly lawned garden with side access, offering a fairly private aspect. For the reception space and location to be fully appreciated, viewings are highly recommended.

Famous for its Abbey and museum, Dorchester is rich in cultural heritage and hosts a popular annual arts festival. There is plenty to do with various groups and societies including cricket, tennis and sailing clubs. Facilities in the village include a primary school, a Catholic church, hairdressers, three pubs (two of them also hotels), a tea room beside the Abbey, a convenience store and the popular Bishop's Court Farm with its Snug cafe and regular jazz events. The nearby market towns of Wallingford and Abingdon offer a wider range of amenities and shopping. The village is also well known for its access to a wide choice of country or riverside walks.
