Description

A beautifully presented detached house on the popular David Wilson development within a quiet cul de sac. A wonderful garden has been established by the present owners with a cottage-garden feel. Built-in 2020 with the remainder of a 10 year NHBC. Fantastic living space and four double bedrooms make this a fantastic home. .

Climbing roses spiral around the estate railings on the path to the front door and immediately give you the feeling that this is a rather special home. The front door opens into a generous hallway with a wood-effect floor and access to a ground floor cloakroom with a useful storage cupboard with consumer unit and power points used for storage of vacuum cleaner and ironing board. To the left of the hall is the sitting room with a bay window and plenty of space for large sofas. There is a multi media panel for all modern requirements. Opposite this room is a snug or office which the current owners use as a studio.

Across the back of the property is a lovely dining kitchen with a feature bay window which provides a seating area as well as the dining area. French doors lead out onto the garden and the wood-effect flooring from the hall continues through this room. There are extensive wall and base units with quartz work surfaces and under unit lighting. Fitted with electric double oven, 6 ring gas hob (with extractor fan over), dishwasher and fridge freezer. Off the kitchen is a utility room with a door onto the rear garden and offering further storage within wall and base units, plumbing for washing machine and an additional sink. The boiler supplying central heating and hot water is concealed within a wall cupboard.

On the first floor there are four double bedrooms with the principal bedroom having extensive fitted storage and an en suite shower room. The other three bedrooms all have wardrobe recesses and will accommodate a double bed. The family bathroom has a double ended bath and a separate shower cubicle.

Location

Wells is the smallest city in England and offers a vibrant high street with a variety of independent shops and restaurants as well as a twice weekly market and a choice of supermarkets including Waitrose.
