Location

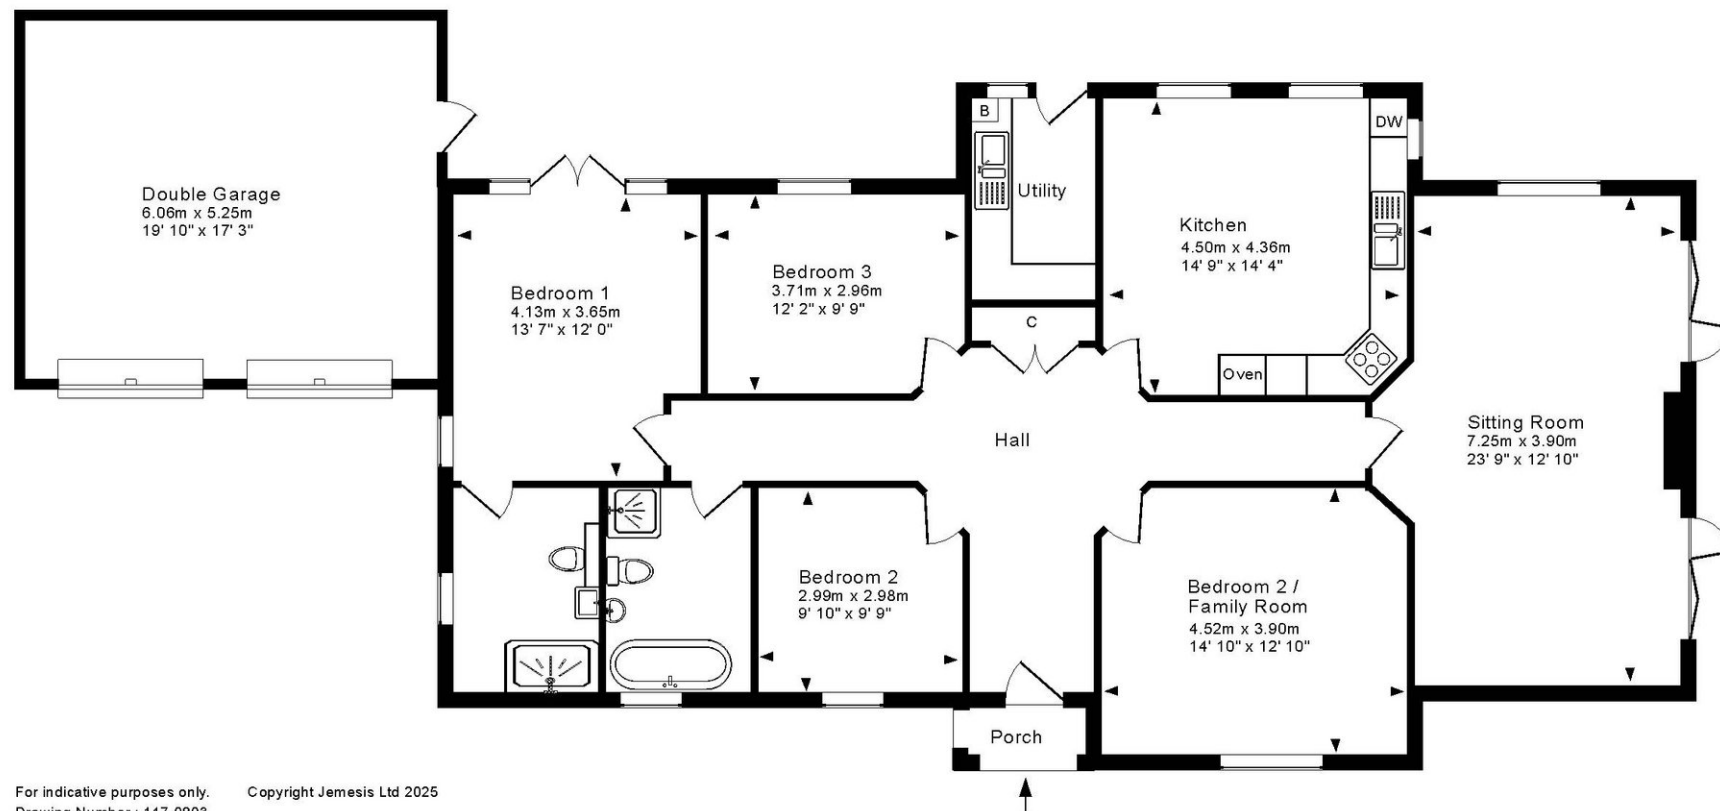

The village of Coxley is just 2 miles from Wells and c.3 miles to Glastonbury with a regular bus service between. There is a village hall, restaurant, primary school and church as well as a large reclamation yard. Wells is the smallest city in England and offers a vibrant high street with a variety of independent shops and restaurants as well as a twice weekly market and a choice of supermarkets including Waitrose. Amenities include a leisure centre, independent cinema and a theatre. Bristol and Bath lie c.22 miles to the north and north-east respectively with mainline train stations to London at Castle Cary (c.11 miles) as well as Bristol and Bath. Bristol International Airport is c.15 miles to the north-west. Of particular note is the variety of well-regarded schools in both the state and private sectors in Wells and the surrounding area. the historic town of Glastonbury is famous for its Tor and Abbey Ruins and mystical associations. The town centre offers a good range of shops, banks, restaurants, cafes, health centres, public houses and schooling.

Insight

Built in 2011 this individual detached bungalow is certainly not a typical bungalow. It offers spacious and flexible accommodation with a high level of specification including underfloor gas fired central heating, wood-effect UPVC double glazing and well appointed kitchen and bathrooms. The property enjoys a level plot with an easily maintained south-facing garden. The contemporary style of the property is just as likely to appeal to family buyers as it will to more traditional bungalow purchasers.

- Generous entrance hall with built-in storage
- Sitting room enjoying a double aspect with bi-folding doors and log burner
- Family room/4th bedroom
- Large dining kitchen with integrated appliances and utility room off
- Master bedroom with luxurious en suite shower room and two further bedrooms
- Well appointed family bathroom with separate shower
- Underfloor gas fired heating. Engineered oak flooring and tiling throughout.
- Easily maintained south-facing garden with large patio designed for easy maintenance
- Double garage (currently set up as a games room/bar) with driveway parking
