PROPERTY SUMMARY

With allocated parking for one car and south-westerly facing garden, this charming three bedroom Grade II listed mid terraced house is conveniently situated in the heart of Bewdley town. Just a stone's throw from the beautiful grounds of Jubilee Gardens, it offers a generous, well presented layout and a long attractively laid out rear garden.

The property retains much of its original character and includes exposed timber beams and a good sized cellar, which provides excellent further potential.
