PROPERTY SUMMARY

Bank House is a wonderful large Victorian six bedroom house within sought after Bewdley. Located within walking distance of town amenities, together with Jubilee Gardens and the River Severn. Offering an incredibly generous layout including lovely high ceilings and arranged over three floors, the property provides immense further potential and retains much of its original character and charm, including the original sash / stained glass windows, a stone staircase, tiled floorings, feature fireplaces and doors. To the rear, the property enjoys a large beautifully laid out rear garden and there is also a double garage, which is accessed via neighbouring Lax Lane.
