HUGGATE

Nestling in the beautiful wolds countryside approximately seven miles from the busy market town of Pocklington is the picturesque village of Huggate, the subject of several of David Hockneys paintings. St Marys Church with its splendid 14th century tower and spire overlooks the village, its lovely duck pond and the village green which is home to one of the deepest wells in England. Being close to the Wolds Way the area is very popular with walkers as is the Wolds Inn a welcoming pub, B&B and award winning restaurant.
