Brief Description

Situated down a country lane, The Heathers is a quirky three bedroom detached bungalow conveniently located within a short drive of the historic and bustling market town of Nantwich. This unique home was formerly the local telephone exchange and was converted in the 1980s to transform it into a charming, well maintained home and although at first impression it appears relatively modern, once you are inside it has a wonderful cottage feel about it. The accommodation includes a light and airy Entrance Hall, attractive Lounge having feature brick fireplace with the potential to add a log burner if desired, perfect for cosy nights in front of the fire. The good size Kitchen has a large window to the front with a pleasing outlook over the pretty surroundings and if you enjoy country living there is also a space for an Aga or Range cooker. There are Three Bedrooms incorporating two doubles and a single and there is also a Family Bathroom with modern suite. If you are looking for more open-plan modern living, there is also the possibility to create larger Kitchen/Diner by incorporating the third bedroom, subject to the necessary local authority consent. Outside, the property is approached over a gravel driveway adjoined by mature gardens and there is also a small garden to the rear with gravel and lawned areas.

Location

Situated in the village of Aston which has a farm shop and cafe and being some 4 miles south of Nantwich and 7 miles north of Whitchurch.
