Location

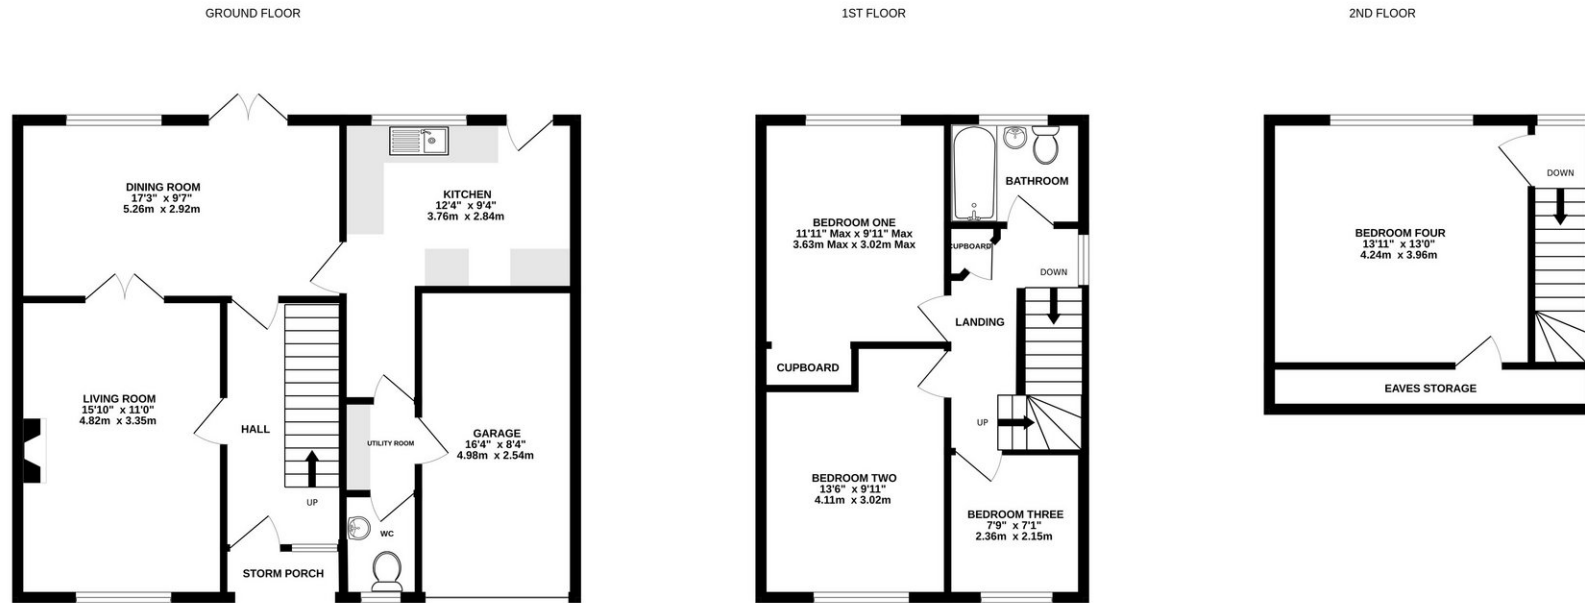

The delightful village of Ashcott (population c.1186) sits part way along the Polden ridge, having wonderful rural views of the Somerset Levels and its various tributaries, all situated some 5 miles south-west of Glastonbury. At its heart is the historic Church of All Saints, an early 15th century building, forming part of a group of six churches known as the Polden Wheel. Ashcott is particularly well known locally for its superb village community and benefits from a highly regarded Primary School, sports playing fields, The Ashcott Inn, and active village hall.

Insight

We are pleased to bring to market this attractive and versatile semi-detached village home enjoying the benefit of spacious attic room with far reaching views. Neatly maintained and beautifully presented throughout affording comfortable living accommodation that is bright, airy, and generously proportioned. Viewing is advised to truly appreciate what's on offer.

- Enjoying a good-sized living room with large window to the front and decorative feature gas fireplace as the focal point of the room, double doors give access through to the dining room
- The dining room is a superb size, flooded with natural light and a perfect space for entertaining or enjoying family dinners with access through to the kitchen and French doors out to the garden
- Spacious well-appointed kitchen fitted with a comprehensive range of wall base and drawer units, ample worktop, breakfast bar and space for freestanding appliances
- A practical home offering a large entrance hall and landing, under stair storage, airing cupboard, downstairs cloakroom, utility room and garage.
- Affording three bedrooms; two of which would be considered generously proportioned doubles. All are serviced by the family bathroom comprising panelled bath with shower over, wash basin and WC
- The attic room truly is an excellent space, enjoying peace and quiet with far reaching views across the village and hills beyond.
- Enjoying an enclosed south facing garden with raised deck leading down to the split-level garden, which encompasses both lawn and gravel areas. A side gate gives access to the front of the property.
- To the front a lawn is retained by a stone wall and there is plenty of parking provided by the drive, gravel area and pull-in at the front of the property. Garage supplied with power and light.
