Description

Entering beneath the covered canopy, the home welcomes you either through the practical utility entrance or the more formal hall. From the outset, the property exudes charm and character, with exposed wooden beams and cottage-style ceilings running throughout, reflecting its history as a former farmhouse and barn. Entering via the utility, you'll find a practical space with storage for coats and shoes, plumbing for laundry appliances and a useful larder cupboard. From here, a cloakroom with built-in storage is conveniently positioned before leading into the heart of the home the inviting kitchen/breakfast room. This country-style kitchen is beautifully appointed with a range of wall, base and drawer units, complete with an integrated oven, induction hob and space for under counter appliances. Dual windows flood the room with natural light, and the layout is designed for modern living while retaining its rustic feel. It provides the perfect setting for entertaining, cooking or enjoying family meals together. A door opens into the formal dining room, a versatile, well-proportioned space full of charm and character, ideal for family gatherings or entertaining guests. From both the dining room and kitchen, you step into the sitting room. Here, a magnificent inglenook fireplace fitted with a multi-fuel burner and original bread oven takes centre stage, enhanced by the home's rich character. French doors open directly onto the garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor comfort and outdoor living. This is a space full of atmosphere, the perfect spot for cosy evenings by the fire. The ground floor also includes a cosy snug/library, providing the ideal spot for reading or quiet relaxation, along with a separate study, perfectly suited for home working or hobbies. These additional reception rooms offer excellent flexibility, with the potential to adapt the layout for multi generational living or to meet the changing needs of family life.

Rising to the first floor, the sense of character continues, with exposed beams and cottage charm carried throughout the bedrooms. The principal bedroom is a wonderful retreat, generously proportioned and enhanced by fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. A patio door opens onto a private balcony overlooking the garden, creating a tranquil spot to enjoy morning coffee or simply take in the views over the garden. The two further bedrooms are both well-sized, providing comfortable accommodation for family or guests. They are served by the family bathroom, fitted with a bath, separate shower enclosure, vanity unit with wash basin, WC and a heated chrome towel rail.
