Description

Beautifully renovated throughout, this charming mid-terrace four-bedroom home is conveniently situated within walking distance of Glastonbury Tor, Chalice Well, and the High Street. The accommodation is arranged over three floors and offers generous, well-planned living spaces that blend period character with contemporary comfort.

The ground floor features a welcoming sitting room where a bay window floods the space with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere. The modern kitchen/dining room provides ample space for a large table and chairs at its centre, complemented by a fireplace with an inset electric fire.

From here, a practical utility area provides access into the rear garden and leads to a stylishly appointed bathroom. On the first floor are two double bedrooms, while the top floor provides two further bedrooms, both served by a modern family bathroom.

Currently operated as a successful holiday let, the property presents an ideal investment opportunity but would also make a wonderful family home, perfectly placed to enjoy everything Glastonbury has to offer. Available with no onward chain.

Location

Glastonbury is an historic centre famous for its Tor, picturesque Abbey ruins and many legends. The town provides an eclectic mix of shops along with restaurants and pubs, mainstream supermarkets, health centres, modern library, primary schooling and St Dunstons secondary school. The neighbouring town of Street offers a further choice of shopping with Clarks Village, Strode Sixth Form College and Strode Theatre. Millfield Junior School is on the edge of Glastonbury at Edgarley and Chilkwell Street is equally convenient for Millfield Senior School in Street.

Outside, there is a rear garden with a patio area ideal for alfresco dining, and steps leading further up the sloping garden - a blank canvas for any keen gardener to make their own.
