A most attractive and well appointed barn conversion situated in a delightful picturesque setting with views towards the village green and Maypole. The barn dates back to 1875 and was professionally converted in 1989 and includes a separate converted 'cow barn' outbuilding (with business usage) - making it ideal for those either working from home or as a hobbies/garden room. The property has been much improved by the current owners and briefly comprises covered entrance porch, spacious reception hallway with stairs to the first floor and downstairs w/c, beautifully presented lounge with feature fireplace and wood burner, newly fitted Wren kitchen with adjoining dining room, plus separate utility room. The first floor originally comprised 3 bedrooms (easily reinstated) and features an attractive galleried landing and feature windows, superbly spacious principal bedroom (formerly two rooms) with walk-in wardrobe, large guest bedroom (presently used a study) and modern family bathroom. Outside there is gated driveway parking and a private landscaped garden with two patios for morning and afternoon/evening sun. A wonderful and unique home worthy of immediate viewing.

Wellow is a picturesque village in Nottinghamshire, known for its traditional maypole, one of the few remaining in the country. Nestled near Sherwood Forest, it features charming red-brick cottages, a historic church, scenic countryside walks, traditional pubs (The Olde Red Lion and The Maypole) and the annual Maypole Festival, celebrating the village's heritage with traditional dancing and festivities.

Viewing note - interested parties should be in strong purchasing positions .

The generously proportioned lounge is accessed from the reception hallway and features a brick fronted fireplace with wood burner, beamed ceiling, bespoke cabinetry with hidden motorized TV lift system and illuminated display shelving. The hardwood floors create a warm and inviting atmosphere and there are two full height windows and French doors leading to the rear patio and garden.

The recently re-fitted kitchen offers excellent storage, quality built-in appliances and access to a separate utility room for washing machine, tumble dryer etc. The open plan design into the dining room, makes for a more social space and ideal for entertaining.

The superbly spacious principal bedroom with walk-in wardrobe is actually two bedrooms combined but could be easily re-instated as two separate bedrooms if desired.
