A cosy and welcoming family home, but impressive, with lots of space and character, in rooms which are beautifully finished, unique, and true to the property's heritage. It's a stylish home with gentle decor. And it draws you in and makes you want to kick your shoes off for a while.

The rooms feel solid and generous with space for a family to gather and pile in together, but also have room to break away to work and study; and the benefits of a cellar and a garden room, give you further options on how to use the space.

Past the 2 reception rooms there's a bold kitchen, a cook's happy place, full of natural light and order, and with generous workspace. The kitchen-diner opens out onto a nurtured and creative garden, filled with established shrubs and trees, where a path leads you to the summer house with WC.

The bathroom is a wow moment, so is the loft conversion, but all the bedrooms are lovely and, as throughout this home, feel light and airy.

The location is the meeting point of 3 popular postcodes E10, E17 and E11, moments away from Walthamstow Village and a short stroll from Leyton and Leytonstone, it's a quiet road in a buzzing area, close to Walthamstow village and Francis Road where you'll find local independent shops, cafes, pubs and restaurants. There's a variety of schools and parks within walking distance, and for bigger adventures Hollow Ponds and Epping Forest are only a cycle away.

Good transport links too from Walthamstow Central (Victoria Line) and Leytonstone (Central Line) stations, as well as Wood Street station (Overground). And are all within a 15 minute walk or 5 minute cycle.

A stand-out family home in a wonderful east London location. Shall we take a look?
