Situated on the second floor of an ex-factory conversion, a key feature of this two-bedroom flat is the abundance of natural light that floods the interior via several Velux windows, beautifully illuminating the rooms and enhancing the sense of openness and airiness throughout. The flat's generous proportions further contribute to its appeal, and its top-floor position ensures residents appreciate enhanced peace and quiet. The two bedrooms are almost completely equal in size, while the bathroom offers a modern suite with a clean and functional design.

Renowned for its welcoming and friendly atmosphere and strong sense of community, this property's prime Upper Leytonstone location provides residents easy access to a wealth of local amenities. These include popular spots such as Out of the Woods café for coffee, the independent retailers and services along Colworth Road, and the vibrant shops and eateries of Francis Road. Conveniently located just half a mile from Leytonstone Tube station, residents benefit from swift transport links to central London and beyond, as well as proximity to the bustling High Street's diverse shops, restaurants, and everyday conveniences. In the evenings, the convivial atmosphere of local pubs like the Red Lion, the Sir Alfred Hitchcock Hotel, and The Byrds further enriches this desirable location. Nature enthusiasts will appreciate the easy access to the picturesque Hollow Ponds and the expansive Leyton Flats, both offering tranquil escapes and opportunities for outdoor recreation.
