Classic Victorian family home with shuttered bay windows, in an area within easy reach of everything by foot.

Step inside a clean and pristine home finished to a high standard and full of natural light, set over 3 floors

The dual aspect lounge and dining room provide excellent break out space for people to do different things, while still being together. The kitchen is another well designed, modern space with plenty of extra room for sitting, playing or having breakfast, and where doors lead out to the garden.

The home has a lovely calm feel to it, with clear, well defined areas and neutral decor throughout. Upstairs the bedrooms are doubles, and there's a contemporary family bathroom; and on the third floor, the loft space includes an ensuite and Juliet balcony. You also have the bonus space of a garage with the property which opens up all sorts of added potential.

On the border between E10 and E17, you'll be within easy reach of both Walthamstow village and Leytonstone. Your nearest station is Wood Street, a 10 minute walk away and there're plenty of bus routes along Lea Bridge Road. There's a variety of schools also within walking distance and plenty of natural green space nearby at Hollow Ponds and Epping Forest for walking, exploring and cycling. You'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to shops, cafes, restaurants and pubs in the area with all the lovely independent places nearby in the village.

A family home ready to snap up and in a cracking location. Shall we take a look?
