THE OPPORTUNITY

RESI DEVELOPMENT | FLAT CONVERSION

The property has planning granted for a residential development.

In April 2025 (S.25/0398/CPE) planning was sought and granted for the principle of residential development.

Planning (S.25/0592/FUL) was then sought for a first floor extension and external staircase to allow for a development of 3 large flats.

This was refused in June 2025 (but not appealed)

Planning is now being sought (S.25/1492/FUL) with a decision due on October 1st to create 2 flats within the existing footprint of the building with one allocated parking space per flat.

We understand the GDV is £185,000 and £195,000 | £380,000

Interested parties may wish to appeal the refused consent (S.25/0592/FUL) for the original larger scheme.

Alternatively the property may suit conversion into a single dwelling (subject to any consents)

BUYER'S PREMIUM

Please be aware all purchasers are subject to a £1,500 + VAT (£1,800 inc VAT) buyer's premium which is ALWAYS payable upon exchange of contracts whether the sale is concluded before, during or after the auction date.

GUIDE PRICE

An indication of the seller's current minimum acceptable price at auction. The guide price or range of guide prices is given to assist consumers in deciding whether to pursue a purchase. It is usual, but not always the case, that a provisional reserve range is agreed between the seller and the auctioneer at the start of marketing. As the reserve is not fixed at this stage and can be adjusted by the seller at any time up to the day of the auction in the light of interest shown during the marketing period, a guide price is issued. This guide price can be shown in the form of a minimum and maximum price range within which an acceptable sale price (reserve) would fall, or as a single price figure within 10% of which the minimum acceptable price (reserve) would fall. A guide price is different to a reserve price (see separate definition). Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.

RESERVE PRICE

The seller's minimum acceptable price at auction and the figure below which the auctioneer cannot sell. The reserve price is not disclosed and remains confidential between the seller and the auctioneer. Both the guide price and the reserve price can be subject to change up to and including the day of the auction.
