The picturesque, rural village of Kilmelford is scattered around the shores of Loch Melfort, situated on the A816 between the towns of Oban (about 15 miles) and Lochgilphead (about 21 miles) and enjoys a thriving community life with local services including a village hall, a general store/post office, licensed hotel with pub and restaurant, parish church and boatyard/yachting marina. Primary schooling is provided in the nearby village of Kilninver with secondary education in Oban with a bus service providing transport to both. The surrounding area abounds with outdoor sporting and leisure opportunities and is renowned for its excellent sailing waters.

The Glebe is a development of modern homes conveniently located in the heart of the village. Available for reservation now, Plot 62, situated on the fringe of the development, is a proposed 4 bedroomed one and a half storey detached home benefiting from renewable air-source heating technology, NHBC guarantee, double glazed windows with high levels of thermal insulation and a choice of kitchen designs from Howdens.
